Dear Mr. Lloyd:

During a recent shelf review, we noticed that we had mistakenly closed your 25 December 2018 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records on Carmine Pecorelli (September 14, 1928 – March 20, 1979), known as Mino. This is also a final response to your request. We assigned your request the new reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We completed a thorough review of your request and determined that in accordance with Section 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526, the CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of records responsive to your request. The fact of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself currently and properly classified and is intelligence sources and methods information protected from disclosure by Section 6 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. Therefore, your request is denied pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

If you have any questions regarding our response, you may contact us at:
